APPLICATION FOR MEMBERSHIP

The Colorado Soaring Association (CSA) is one of the premier soaring clubs in the nation. It was formed as a non-profit corporation to promote safe soaring, advance the knowledge of the sport, and to provide its members with advanced sailplanes at minimum cost. In order to accomplish these objectives, CSA owns its own gliderport, maintains a fleet of sailplanes, and provides tows and primary through advanced instruction. CSA is governed by a seven-member board of directors elected from the membership.

CSA offers a variety of attractions -- club ships with no flight charges, a first-class facility with hangars, paved runways, clubhouse, kitchen facilities, bunkroom, recreation room for the kids, camping and RV parking, and excellent soaring. The club encourages cross-country and wave flying. Club instructors provide primary instruction as well as advanced instruction in high performance sailplanes, cross-country flying, mountain wave flying and winch launching.

The club's operations depend entirely on the membership, and members are expected to assist with ground operations and work on one of the standing committees (membership, maintenance, facilities, operations, social, etc.). The modest club dues and income from tows pay for the entire facility and all club operations.

MEMBERSHIP CLASSES, DUES, AND RATES

Membership is open to all individuals interested in the sport of soaring. Application for membership in CSA can be made at any time. If you're not sure if flying a glider is for you but would like to try it, the club offers you the opportunity to get a rebate of your initiation fee any time before your fourth flight. New members remain on "Candidate Status" for ninety (90) days as a get-acquainted period.

REGULAR: Full privileges and use of CSA sailplanes.

FAMILY: Any member of a regular member's immediate family who lives in the same household. Includes all the privileges of a regular member, including voting rights if age 18 or older.

STUDENT: An elementary through high-school student, or a full-time student enrolled in an accredited degree program carrying 12 units or more. Includes all the privileges of a regular member except the right to vote. A student under 18 must have permission of a parent or guardian. At age 18 (or at graduation), the student member may convert to a regular membership by payment of the difference between the student initiation fee and the regular initiation fee.

INSTRUCTOR/TOW PILOT (I/TP): No voting privileges or dues. Must initially join as a regular member. May convert to I/TP status after 3 months' satisfactory performance and "fly off" initiation fee rebate.

INACTIVE: No flying privileges and no voting rights. A member must have been in one of the other membership categories for at least a year to be eligible for inactive status. After a year as an inactive member and for up to five years, an inactive member can return to one of the active membership categories without paying the initiation fee again. After five years, a new initiation fee is required.

Aerotow rates are $10 for hookup, plus $1.15 per hundred feet. A typical 2000-foot tow costs $33. Winch launches cost $15.00. Members are expected to pay flight charges when they are incurred. Statements are sent monthly.

CSA is a chapter member of the Soaring Society of America (SSA), and CSA members are required to belong to SSA. The SSA membership fee is $64.00 per year ($36 for family and youth members), and this fee is collected through the club. Membership in SSA entitles you to a number of benefits, including Soaring magazine. Dues are pro-rated so that SSA membership for all CSA members expires on June 30 of each year.

There are no flight charges for use of club sailplanes. Sailplanes currently in the club inventory include:
